

National College regional event

Developing and nurturing partnerships to aid school improvement

Event summary:

- Examples of schools successfully working in partnership with other schools, businesses and community groups.
- Explore how these partnerships are led and managed, and how they have impacted on school improvement.
- Look at how team working in schools can aid school improvement and bring about consistency and reduce in school variation

24 June 2010,
9.30am – 4pm

Claremont High School,
Harrow, HA3 0UH

For further information email
networkevents@nationalcollege.org.uk

This event is free to attend

Register now at www.nationalcollege.org.uk/events.

